Besides, Ive got a little bit of work still to do on that off engine; shes not singing just right yet. Very well then, George, said the Duke, who was really pleased at Billings decision, for he too wished to humor the youngster. Lets be going, Wiggler! But that energetic youth, disdainful of the woven ladders provided as a means of easy descent from the cockpits, was already upon the ground and making his way toward the French staff-car and its grinning chauffeur. The Duke followed him more leisurely, and in less than three, minutes they were both being ushered into the presence of General Mangin. CHAPTER XI A SUMMARY SENTENCE When the Duke and Wiggler entered the French Headquarters General Mangin was seated at his desk, and as the two American boys halted before him and saluted he looked...
