In Ex parte Morris, the Vice-Chancellor says, With respect to the application to prove under section 62, I am satisfied that it applies only to subsisting partnerships at the time of the bankruptcy. There must have been a partnership in that case, otherwise the decision of the Vice-Chancellor would have been wrong. In Ex parte Bauerman we relied on the case of Ex parte Morris; but the Chief Judge said, there is no doubt that the 62nd section is only applicable to existing partnerships at the time of the bankruptcy. Here there can be no existing partnership; because the partnership was not only dissolved by the bankruptcy of several of the partners, but also by the death of Mr. Barher. Sir John Cross. Although partners dissolve their partnership, are there not still joint debts, and joint estate; and are they not still partners...
