

A Fading Art: Understanding Breast-Feeding in the Middle East (Paperback)

By Modia Batterjee, Dr Modia Batterjee

Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 134 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .While most people understand the benefits of breastfeeding infants, the practice is not always supported in all cultures. A Fading Art by Dr. Modia Batterjee is a personal and highly researched exploration of breastfeeding in the Middle East, specifically Saudi Arabia. A lactation consultant, Batterjee saw firsthand how the Arab culture encourages breastfeeding, yet does not support it, making it difficult for Saudi women to feed their children the way they should. Interlaced with chapters on breastfeeding during Ramadan and birthing practices are Batterjee's own fascinating experiences with prenatal education and breastfeeding counseling. Warmly written and informative, A Fading Art explores how and why breastfeeding is so beneficial, from its rich supply of antibodies and nutrients to the way it bonds mothers and infants together. Batterjee also examines communities and how they work, or don't work, to help families. Batterjee and her family opened Al-Bidayah Center, the first breastfeeding resource and women's awareness center in Saudi Arabia, providing counseling for mothers and training for nurses and health care workers. By giving breastfeeding a hip and...

READ ONLINE
[8 MB]

Reviews

This ebook is definitely not straightforward to start on looking at but really enjoyable to learn. It usually will not charge excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Karianne Deckow

This written ebook is great. I was able to comprehend every little thing using this written e publication. I am very happy to tell you that this is the finest ebook i have go through during my individual existence and could be he greatest ebook for possibly.

-- Simone Goyette II