Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Attorney General for the Year Ending The work involved the interpretation of existing statutes as well as drafting, and assisting in the drafting of, new legislation. As in the past, we rendered opinions to the Governor on bills relating to legal matters coming before him for his signature. In addition to the handling by the staff of the great volume of business coming before the office in the ordinary course, the Division of Civil Rights and Liberties, and the Division of Consumer Counsel, both of which I established, continued their programs for the protection of the civil rights of citizens, and the protection of the consumer. Statements of the more important activities of those divisions, and of the other divisions and units of the department, are set forth below. Consumer Council and Division of Consumer Counsel. The Advisory Consumer Council consisting of ten leading economists and experts in the field of consumer problems which I appointed in 1958, continued its efforts on behalf of the consumer, and, working in conjunction with my Division of Consumer Counsel, concentrated on five main fields of activity, namely, (1) Milk, (2) Transportation, (3) Antitrust, (4) Consumer Fraud, (5) Public Utilities. Milk. As a result of the challenge by the Attorney General s Advisory Consumer Council of the legality of the price-fixing order entered by the Milk Control Commission, the commission made findings purporting to show continued need for price regulation of retail sales. Under the statutes, this finding had to be submitted to the Milk Regulation Board for review and approval. On July 1, the board met and by a 2-2 tie ended the price regulations....
