THIRTIETH ANNUAL MEETING. JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS. New Bedford, August 23, 1859. The Institute assembled in the City Hall, and was called to order at 2 o'clock, P. M., by John D. Philbrick, Esq., the President. The Divine blessing was invoked by the Rev. Ma. Craig, of New Bedford. The records of the last Annual Meeting were read by the Secretary, and approved by the Institute. His Honor Mayor Nye then cordially welcomed the Institute to the hospitalities of the city, in the following words: --Mr. President: --To me has been assigned the pleasant duty of bidding you, and through you the American Institute of Instruction, on behalf of the City Government and my fellow citizens, a cordial and hearty welcome. I desire, on behalf of those I represent, to thank the Board of Directors for the honor conferred in designating the City of New Bedford as the place for holding this, the thirtieth annual meeting of the Institute. The great work of Popular Education, for the advancement of which this organization was formed, also received the early attention of our citizens, and continues to be cherished with unabated interest. In this connection it may be proper for me to state a fact, which at this time is particularly interesting, in view of the recent legislation of the State. As early as the year 1824, or 1825, our Public Schools were established; the great disadvantages of the district system...
