Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Franco returns from Europe where he was testing the quality of security of the numerous divisions of the US Army occupying West Germany after the world war II. His work and the scams he had to perpetrate, didn t endear him to almost all the units and a pile of complaints accumulated on the General s desk. Nicole Mirabeau a French beauty Franco was courting for two years, comes to Washington and asks to live with Franco because of finances. However she meets a rich perfume manufacturers from France in the French Embassy where she is a receptionist and he dazzles her with the grandeur of the upper crust of Parisian society. The night before she told Franco that she s leaving him, after a two year courtship, she felt so guilty, she decided to sleep with him. In the morning she told him of her decision. The shock to Franco was devastating. What was worse, was the shock Mrs. Edwards received, she was the blind lady and Franco s adopted mother. What nobody knew was that the reason she had those ever increasing headaches was a developing aneurism in her head. she liked Nicole, and the strain trying to convince Nicole she made a mistake exceeded the strength of the brain vessel and it burst. Franco lost two persons dear to him and there was only one way to escape the loss. Work. It always cured his mind of psychological problems and he accepted another assignment. Soviet tanks were massing on the Czechoslovak border as a prelude to invasion and General Morgenthau, Franco s superior ordered him to find out what lay behind this unusual action of...
