No, thank you, answered Bess coolly and quickly. I can manage, and, before he could reach her car, for he had alighted from his own, she had gotten out, cranked up, and was in her seat again. Then she hurried off down the road, leaving a rather crestfallen young chap standing in the dusty highway. Remarkably pretty girl-that, he said, aloud. I wish I could have helped her. But she was cool, all of a sudden. Maybe she didn t like my slang-I wish I could break myself of using it-hang the luck-there I go again, and, with a shake of his head he went back to his car. Adventure number one, mused Bess, as she swung along, not so fast this time. I wonder what will come next? I guess I am getting a little too high-spirited. I must calm down. But I can t, when I think of Lookout Beach. [.]
