It would be difficult to estimate the good that has been done by these intimate studies of home-county conditions by students who counted it a privilege to do their part in helping their county find itself. Forsyth County and Winston-Salem desired a survey even more intimate. We wanted the University to send us men to go over the field and tell us where we lead, where we lag and the way out. The request was presented to President Graham. He gladly fell in with our plan and made it possible for Winston-Salem and Forsyth County to have the most complete survey yet made in the State. The survey was made by Prof. E. C. Branson, Dr. Charles Lee-Raper and Dr. L. A. Williams. It will be published in two parts. The first part will contain two sections. The first section is The Social and Economic Survey of the County by Prof. Branson, and the second section is the Industrial Survey of the City by Dr. Raper. The second part is presented in this volume and contains the Educational Study of the Schools of Winston-Salem by Dr. Williams. Dr. Williams came to Winston-Salem in February, 1917, and made a personal inspection of the school system. Every opportunity was afforded him that the facts might be known. No attempt was made to dictate in any way what should be put in or what should be left out. All available records were placed at his disposal. The study...
