Excerpt: .should be allowed to hazard the general good. The influence of the central authorities, as evidenced by the continuation school program, is cast on the side of the general good. They do not recognize the short, intensive course as being the equivalent of the longer continuation school course. CHAPTER IV LOWER COMMERCIAL SCHOOLS (3) MUNICH COMMERCIAL CONTINUATION SCHOOL Lower commercial schools in the other German states present such a variety of conditions as to render any attempt at generalization difficult indeed. Each Of the twelve states where a compulsory attendance law is universally in operation regulates its own school affairs, and is not at all subservient to the example set by Prussia. On the whole, then, it seems better to devote some attention to describing the conditions that prevail in the Munich school, which may be taken as typical of...
