Canada's Lloyd Axworthy . who was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize . enjoyed a 27 year career in politics , including as Member of Parliament , and minister of portfolios which included Immigration, Transport , Human Resources Development, and Foreign Affairs . A former professor of the University of Winnipeg in Manitoba . he has won the CARE International Humanitarian Award . Director and CEO of the Liu Institute for Global Issues, at the University of British Columbia . Axworthy is also a board member of both the MacArthur Foundation and of Human Rights Watch. . " In this fascinating and courageous book, Axworthy charts how we can become active citizens in the demanding world . to make it safer , more sustainable, and more humane . Throughout, he emphasizes the human story . As we meet refugees from civil war and drought . child soldiers and landmine victims . the moral imperative is clear : this is a deeply compassionate appeal to confront poverty, war, and environmental disaster. . This book lays out just why Canada has the skills . while remaining staunchly independent from the U.S. . to lead the world into a 21st century less nightmarish than the last . and to help make the world safer and more just for all . This is a call to action from one of the...
