As the overly organized go-to gal for her drama-queen younger sisters, her anxiety-ridden father, and her needy clients, Chloe is normally prepared for every disaster that comes her way. But with her wedding to her strait-laced lawyer fiance back in DC only days away and a French con man on the loose with her engagement ring, this is one catastrophe she never could have planned for. As Chloe tries to figure out a way home, she runs into an even bigger problem: the police are after her due to suspicious activity now tied to her bank account. Chloe s only hope of retrieving her passport and clearing her name lies in the hands of Julien, a rugged undercover agent who has secrets of his own. As Chloe follows this mysterious and although she doesn t want to admit it sexy French man on a wild chase through the sun-kissed countryside of France, she discovers a magical world she never knew existed. And she can t help but wonder if the perfectly ordered life she s built for herself back home is really what she wants after all.
