This act was not done in a corner. The declaration was made in the hearing of our most famous schools, and in the face of the whole country. It was the unanimous voice of as large a body of distinguished educators as I have ever seen assembled. The resolution thus adopted provided for the appointment of a national committee to consider how this want;should be met, and to report at the next meeting of the Association, in 1870. Owing to the lateness of the date at which the chairman received the list of appointees, the calling a full meeting of the committee could not be attempted. Even correspondence with any but the nearest members was impracticable. The report submitted at Cleveland was only preliminary, therefore, and, by...
