But what would you do, having given some love, take it and throw it, or give it a hug I treat it kindly, because love is like people; sensitive and shaky, stupid and fickle. So live with a smile, stay a little while; well miss you quite dearly, in that last, dying mile. When you first wake up, what is it that gets you out of bed The promise of coffee or tea, perhaps a good show or movie Well, ladies and gentlemen, it is my dearest wish that this book, Born of the Stars, will be your reason. Your reason for gripping life by the tail each day and holding to it stead-fast. This compilation of my personal poetry is not just a book meant for anyone. Its meant for those who need a little kick of inspiration, a little warmth, and a touch of empathy. Please, enjoy my book, and may it find you in good health and bring you as much joy as each and every work has brought me. This item...
