Coloring is something which has been associated for a long time with kids and it has been accepted that, as we reach maturity, we put aside our colored pencils and turn to more grown-up pursuits. However, in recent years we have increasingly seen this wisdom being rejected and coloring for grown-ups has become a widespread and growing hobby. But why has coloring for grown-ups become so popular? There are many explanations for the explosion in adult coloring, but here are just some. Coloring Lowers Stress And Anxiety Psychiatrists have long known that coloring relaxes the fear center of the brain and allows your mind to get some rest. In fact the founder of analytical psychology, Carl Jung, is known to have given his patients mandalas to color more than one hundred years ago. In today's hectic world the stress...
